

ROLE OF AN AMBASSADOR

- Model respectful workplace behavior
- 1 year engagement commitment
- Attend and participate in leadership/mentorship training

- Apply skills learned in training to challenge inappropriate workplace behavior
- Attend monthly meetings
- Participate in ANEW & RISE Up events

As a RISE Up Ambassador, you will have the opportunity to not only speak up on site but regionally across the industry!

Join us in shifting the culture of construction to one that is inclusive to all people; one individual, organization, and one site at a time.

Sign up for an Info Session!

Scan the code or go to riseup4equity.org/register

Scan me!

City of Seattle

AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

WHO CAN BE AN AMBASSADOR?

Represent Your Trade

- Are you a role model?
- Do your colleagues look up to you?
- Are you looking for leadership opportunities?
- Do you believe in respectful work environments?

WE NEED YOU!

Help Lead the Industry

To promote inclusive and respectful worksites, we need tradespeople like you to help us with the work of supporting tradespeople in the field.

We would like to invite you to become an ambassador! If you believe that education, knowledge, and bystander intervention can create a positive, inclusive work site for all people – this is the opportunity for you!

TOGETHER WE RISE UP

This training program gives you the tools to advocate for workers who have been under-represented in the construction industry, women and BIPOC individuals.

AWARENESS

KNOWLEDGE

TOOLS

You'll utilize tools, skills, and social currency to help others rise up alongside you. Together, you can change the future of the construction industry.

